

Recently Diagnosed or Living with a Brain Tumour?
Find out about the Services and Support Available in Northern Ireland

MANAGING YOUR CARE

Information Evening

Wednesday 10th September 2014: 6.15 - 9.00pm
Centre for Cancer Research & Cell Biology (CCRCB), Queens University Belfast

Welcome and Introduction:

Sandra McKillop: Brainwaves NI Chairperson

Standards of Care:

Update from the NICaN Brain & CNS Group and Regional Neuro-Oncology Service

Deborah Kerr: Clinical Network Coordinator NICaN

The needs of Patients and Carers:

Dr Tom Flannery: Consultant Neurosurgeon, Senior Lecturer

Providing a Network of Care:

Information & Support available at diagnosis, across local hospitals and in the community

Medb Bradley: Neuro-Oncology Clinical Nurse Specialist

Dr Conn Haughey: Senior Registrar, Northern Ireland Hospice

Dr John McConville: Neurologist, Ulster Hospital, South Eastern Health & Social Care Trust

Practical Advice and Support:

Imelda McGucken: Centre Director at Charis Integrated Cancer Care

Ena Bingham MBE: Epilepsy Nurse Specialist

Bronagh Lynch: Specialist Occupational Therapist

Clodagh McStravick: Physiotherapist

Kate Ferguson MBE: Honorary Secretary Brainwaves NI, local Brain Tumour support charity

This event is provided free of charge by Brainwaves NI. For Booking & Catering Arrangements, you must register
Please email: info@brainwaves-ni.org or call | leave a message: 028 9335 3995

Information Evening hosted by Brainwaves NI, in partnership with Northern Ireland Cancer Network Brain and CNS Network Group

BRAIN TUMOUR INFORMATION & SUPPORT
BRAINWAVES NI
WWW.BRAINWAVES-NI.ORG

